

MGA PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

For the first time since the MGA's Player of the Year Award was started in 1976 there are co-winners—Jonas Saxton of Greenwich and George Zahringer III of Sands Point. Because the point system for determining the Player of the Year is being revamped, the MGA Management Committee has decided to name two winners.

Other top finishers in the point standings include Jamie Fordyce, Dick Siderowf, Jeff Thomas, Frank Esposito, James Guerra, John Baldwin and Jon Doppelt.

It seems fitting that Saxton and Zahringer, the two players who have dominated area golf over the past three seasons, are the award's first dual recipients. Congratulations!
